

Hello, as a non-native English speaker, it's quite difficult for me to understand the various explanations in the AIP. Is there any future initiative to translate the proposals into French or other languages for non-native English speakers?

Thank you