

Hello everyone,

Today I come with an unfortunate matter to discuss, but I need to know if there are others facing the same issue. I won the Ledger giveaway in partnership with ApeCoin last month, and I still haven't received it. I found out that my Ledger is currently held up in Brazil postal service. In order for them to release it to me, I have to pay an import tax. However, the tax they're charging me (as shown in the image below) is actually higher than the value of the Ledger itself, an absolute absurdity. I'm wondering if there are others in a similar situation as mine, as I'm unsure of what to do about it.
