

Please introduce yourself here, so we can all get to know each other! Include your preferred name/handle, any organizational affiliations of note, why you're interested in Anoma, and what kinds of discussions you'd be interested in having. One post per person, please (but feel free to edit as many times as you like).