

The Dymocracy Forum exists for discussing governance proposals and other applicable ideas promoting the entire Dymension ecosystem. Present governance proposals, discuss and refine them. Communicate insights related to the decision-making processes, and the overall governance of the Dymension network and its various components, and be part of on-chain decision-making processes of the Dymension ecosystem.