

@colorcode6a , thanks a lot for your proposal! First of all, I completely agree that Lido should move to zk oracles. While LEGO is authorized to approve projects up to 100k, your project would exceed this barrier due to the audits required.

This makes it an issue for the DAO to consider. As advisor to the DAO, I want to share some thoughts about how to design a good process for working w/ external suppliers. The process I have in mind works like this: DAO comes together for a general priori...

Mountains are critical improvements to Lido that have a significant impact on its growth, security, operations, etc.

It can be mentioned that the process of applying MOUNTAIN remains the same but LEGO is authorized to approve grants upto 100K so for mountain grants the DAO will review your application. [Something like that]
