

As I have reported in I am willing to donate half of the stolen 6.2k aave funds to the community. Or freeze them forever. Just to catch the hacker

Even with my four suggestions including one to donate all funds to UNICEF:

1) Donate half of the stolen tokens, which is about 220,000usd.

2) Freeze them.

3) I provide collateral about twice of the stolen tokens. If I have any wrong doings or cause any harm to AAVE, the collateral will be disposed by aave.

4) Donate part or all of the funds to any organization under AAVE's discretion and public monitoring (to ensure the fund is actually be donated to the organization). I suggest to donate to UNICEF (www.unicef.org). Please help me to fulfil this dream. It can be executed by AAVE so make sure the fund is going to UNICEF.

AAVE decided not to take action.

Here is the email I sent to AAVE:

Apart from all I have said, just check how many votings are there in the governance page (there are only 3 totally included existing ones and executed ones) and the voting system is actually not working and it is no available to creat a voting, I do not believe AAVE is not able to extend the cooldown. And I do not think extending cooldown allows a voting. It only strengthened my belief that this hacking has something to do with AAVE.

Even if it is because my keys are compromised, AAVE could stop this crime but refuses to take necessary action. AAVE's inaction is the main cause of losing this fund.

Even if it is fact that AAVE is not able to extend the cooldown, then this business model should not be allowed.

my stolen AAVE was staked in AAVE.com, therefore AAVE is responsible for its safty.

Please would you send me AAVE's legal business name and address as these will be needed to send you the court materials.

<=====

It is clear AAVE is at least an accomplice of this hacking, if is not hacker himself. I will use every resource of mine and my team to take down AAVE and let the world know the risk of doing business with AAVE. So please let's all abandon it first. Anyone who would join me please send email to me: s_mao3 at yahoo.ca with a title AAVE WILL FALL or <https://twitter.com/sanmao32> twitter @sanmao32

We will pay for your work as this is a serious work for the community and society.
