

GM!

This is to invite all AIP authors to the following public X/Twitter Space (url below) to provide input and feedback for the benefit of all future authors coming up in 2024.

When:

Wednesday, December 6th, 2023, 11:30am Mountain Time

Where:

My Twitter account @ MemeBrains

X/Twitter Space url:

<https://twitter.com/i/spaces/1ypKdkWaANYxW?s=20>

I'm doing this as a volunteer, and I will be writing a followup article summarizing the input from all participants.

There are numerous good uses which can come from having a summarized reference document like this, and it can only exist if people like yourself provide the valuable insights you gained by way of having gone through the AIP process yourself.

I invite you to join the space, share your insights, and if you cannot join the space, please summarize your main points of feedback, input, suggestions, concerns or otherwise, here as a reply. I will then include your input in the follow up document I'll be writing shortly after the public Space concludes.

I recognize adding clickable urls in Discourse can be a touchy subject, therefore if you prefer, simply visit my personal twitter @ MemeBrains for the same Space url in my profile.

Please DM me any questions or concerns, I am here to help.
