

This thread will be used to document how StableLab's validator has voted.

StableLab is a professional governance operations and analytics company that is here to help make dYdX governance the best it can be.

We're always looking for stakers, so if you want to support our mission here, please consider taking with us. We're an experienced node operator team and have a very low commission (5%).

Our validator is here: DYDX Validator - Mintsan
