

It would be great if we could get a formal communication channel between governance participants and the uniswap dev team so we can learn how we can best vote to assist in things the uniswap team are working on. V3 comes to mind. I'd love to know what proposals would assist in making that a reality, or how we can help in any way.

Does anyone have any thoughts on how this might look?