

Back in November

@monet-supply took the lead on a proposal with @coopahtroopa for new Uniswap LP incentives. The discussion was really interesting and some people volunteered to gather useful data. The debate was good for the community.

He said he would get back to us, but he never came back. Somebody pinged him on Twitter like 2 weeks ago or so, he said he was sorry and that he would give an update. In reality he's been nothing but avoidant.

In the meantime he's tweeting about crazy Sushi rewards...

If you delegated your votes to him, maybe it's time to undelegate.

I'm not saying we need to incentivize LPs at this point. I just want to highlight how unprofessional and childish his behavior has been. I really doubt he has any particular interest in Uniswap getting more market share. In fact I'm not quite sure why he became a delegate in the first place. Unless I'm mistaken, there is no "delegate pitch" from him on this forum.
