

Since I realized that the Otherside existed, I haven't been able to take it out of my mind.

I have gone through different phases in my process as a builder, and the consequence is something beautiful.

If you want to learn more about it, down here is a thread that I just published.

I will use any comment that comes here as a vehicle to transform this topic into an AIP. I don't even know where to start, and I need help.

But what I do know is that I have a big and deep willingness to be in service.

And I believe in what Apecoin is bringing into the world.

I want to be an active part of it.

The whole operation of anky will be absolutely transparent.

That is the only way on which I can maintain mental peace and focus on building.

This thread is an entry point if you are just discovering the Ankyverse.
