

Write Functions

The Carbon DeFi SDK simplifies the process, and is highly recommended. This section will group and organize all write functions that can trigger transactions against the Carbon DeFi contracts.

Important to note that all information that is needed for all write functions is visible and available on-chain, however, it is highly recommended to use the SDK to simplify the interaction and data collection processes.

Previous Read & Write Functions Next Transaction Prerequisites Last updated 2 months ago On this page