

there are early adopters who deploy their own smart contract to interact with Uniswap(e.g arbitrage contract to trade tokens between different dex). but according to current uni token claim rules, only EOA address is able to send claim functions. but for users who deploy their own contract are unable to send claim transactions through their own contract if the contract doesn't support external call. please consider airdrop tokens to those users as well.