

Polar

Polar is development framework for building secret contracts. The aim of the project is to make Secret contracts development process simple, efficient and scalable. User can focus on logic of secret contract and not much about further steps in development. It facilitates features such as initiating project repo from contract templates, easy compilation of contracts, deployment and contract testing framework.

For the full docs see <https://docs.arufaresearch.com/getting-started/> Previous Secret IDE Next Frontend Development Last updated 1 year ago