

UPDATE Q2 2023

: we changed our name to SEED Latam

. With this renewed image and enlargement of the scope, we are committed to support communities and leaders in Latam.

Following @GFXlabs and @OPUser initiatives, this is our thread with all our relevant decisions and participation in OP governance.

Presentation

DeFi LATAM is a spanish speaker community for the Web3 & crypto ecosystem, focused on education and adoption of users in Latin America under the values of decentralization and towards the future of internet. We detect the potential of Ethereum's scaling solutions for our region and for this reason we have decided to be a representative voice of the ideas and interests of this increasingly growing community in this part of the world.

Our procedure

With the help of numerous contributors and member of DeFi LATAM and Optimism Español, every decision made on behalf of DeFi LATAM in governance is discussed, agreed upon and communicated to all those interested in participating through our discussion channels on Discord:

DeFi LATAM>Gobernanza>Optimism-op.

Participation in the forum's discussion threads in daily activities are own opinions of the delegate and contributors in their way to keep up with their roles and commitment to the governance; use of "we" or "us" shall apply when representing decisions or communications arising from the community, such as voting decisions and proposal submissions, all through this profile.

Special thanks to PEPO, Cryptochica, our contributors @AxlVaz, @NicoProducto, @Netrim, @994.eth, all our community and people from Latin America who support us!
