

I'm on the move and could've used the app to place a few orders while away from the computer. However, the app just fails while doing that ("invalid signature for order").