

Hello, I am a student doing a research about DeFi lending platforms and I wanted to ask a couple of questions. Could you walk me through the process of lending? And why do you need collateral in order to offer loans? What alternative are there to the need for collateral?