

Can we add some back ground music or art ? Maybe a kitchen that has an ape cooking while talking and explaining the dao , And a short video to show what are best steps to achieve greatness in the dao and what that does for you in the future ? This is only the beginning and technology is so advanced . We need something here to attract people to come and see or join . Also what about your ape bags ? Requiring 1 ape is rather low I would say . Are purpose is to make a wonderful dao that is unique , and rewarding to ape coin holders and our impeccable nfts. Wether it's a movie you can watch and gain time by being involved with dao . Or even bonus material from the magazine. The more the merrier, and that should be a major focus . Imagine if 25k are on here helping and creating etc . Now the question is , how can all of us get more people interested in being part of behind the scenes greatness for the wonderful world of apes . For me , it's word of mouth . It's cheap , and effective . What if you were told hey have you seen the ape dao ? They are rewarding people for being active with in the community . First question is what is the reward . What if you could have the chance to mint a ape ? Or what if you did and then if passed you get royalties for as long as it is sold . Again free for the company , nfts are being minted by many minds as the achieve in the dao . Ideas , it would be nice to have a page for ideas only . If good , be ready to for your presentation. Zoom meetings would be nice to . That way we could all chat vs typing. Being interactive with alike minds sparks the greatest ideas ever laid out . Happy Monday to everyone . Juts food for thought on the ideas . I will keep on sending . Hope my ideas aren't to lame
