- Clear milestones and math distribution of the fund

- Target onboarding solutions for new users

- Accurate and simple project communication

- Active and positive feedback loops on the proposal thread

What types of grant applications would you like to see (or what RFPs would you create?):

I created a proposal in the past[Review] [GF: Phase 1 Proposal Cycle 8] EthernautDAOIt was approved after 3 voting cycles of feedback.

I would like to see:

- Tooling proposals, like a new and better hard hat or foundry.

- Developer educational games like https://ethernaut.openzeppelin.com/ or https://www.damnvulnerabledefi.xyz/

- Online hackathons with job interviews at prices

- On-chain auditing prices

- Hacker teams to incentivize projects security (Hats Finance, Inmmunefi)

- GitHub, Twitter, Online developer history integration for developer on-chain attestation and anti sybl attacks systems.

- All kinds of experiments involving developers to get their hands in the mud and build something

- Research teams at the protocol level

Please disclose any anticipated conflicts of interest:

None, even if there's an EthernautDAO fork I'll promote it and consider it a peer.
