Although an AIP Idea can be submitted in any format, does anyone else think it would be helpful to pin the template to the top of that category?

It's not found in "Start Here" either, but actually under "Help & Resources" which has a description that arguably could be improved as well.