Voting by community would be greatly improved if all $UNI was for the community. Currently it seems impossible for ordinary users to make any changes. Since Uniswap team has explicitly stated they wont be working on V2 anymore, why are they still governing it?