We don't want any eras to be deleted entirely ever, but yeah if there was a way to download only the most recently added (with targets), that would be nice. I too download the whole thing every week and just pick the one new era off the top and throw the rest away (because I already have it). They've talked about making this capability to pick and choose which eras you want to download, but have not implemented it.