master_key:

`target_p15 = np.sign(target) * np.abs(target)  1.5`

Should we assume the target will be binned in range <0, 1> as it used to be? If so, the expression can be simplified I guess? (no need to use SGN and ABS)…

`target_p15 = np.sign(target) * np.abs(target)  1.5`

Should we assume the target will be binned in range <0, 1> as it used to be? If so, the expression can be simplified I guess? (no need to use SGN and ABS)…