#

Auth

Auth module is responsible for specifying the base transaction and account types for an application.

#

Available Commands

Name Description account Query for account by address params Query the current auth parameters

#

iris query auth account

Query for account by address.

iris query auth account[flags]

#

iris query auth params

Query the current auth parameters.

iris query auth params[flags]