Would it be possible for this forum to have an option to automatically generate tiny links, that can fit within the character limit of snapshot votes?

This feature would save delegates wanting share such feedback on snapshot for easy reference time on each and every governance vote, while also bringing more traffic back to the Arbitrum forums