Nothing overrides anything – each round is overlapping in time but is independent in terms of scoring. Round X+1 doesn't even need to be the same model as last week, etc etc. So none of your scores for a submission are affected by any other future or past submission.