Avctl Hosting

AVCTL hosting command are used for perform agent related actions using command line interface.

Hosting commands

Before starting actions related to agents make a directory usingmkdir myagent .

1. hosting init
2.
    - Initialize agent template.

3. hosting get agents

4.
    - Get all agents for the user.

5. hosting get agent

6.
    - Prints the selected deployed agent.

7. hosting pull

8.
    - Pull agent files from Agentverse.

9. hosting run -l

10.
    - Run Agent (optional-l
11. flag for logs) ifa

12. not provided it returns latest pulled agent.

13. hosting stop

14.
    - Stop agent

15. hosting push

16.
    - Upload files to Agentverse.

17. hosting sync

18.
    - Automatically synchronize your local files with those in Agentverse. This command decides whether to pull or push files based on which location has the most recent changes.

19. hosting logs -f

20.
    - Print agent logs (optional-f

21. option to follow logs).

22. hosting deploy -n

23.
    - Deploy an agent to Agentverse. This command also updates and restarts the agent if it's already deployed.

24. hosting secrets add

25.
    - Add a secret
26. hosting secrets delete
27.
    - Delete a secret

28. hosting secrets get
29.
    - Retrieve names of all secrets.

30. hosting packages

31.
    - Lists all supported packages by Agentverse.

32. hosting delete

33.
    - Deletes an agent from agentverse.

i Note : For hostingpush andsync commands the agent should be always in stopped state.

Was this page helpful?

AVCTL Authorization commands Examples