It would be interesting to evolve an idea around having internal business development coaching available to ApeCoin DAO members. Some people have pretty good ideas, but 0 experience developing a business around those ideas.

If we offered internal training / coaching that could be extended exclusively to members, we may find some people without business experience have a lot to offer. It would also benefit the DAO directly if the training was focused on those interested in launching businesses or brands around ApeCoin.

Thoughts?