In different platforms, there has been some opinion that the way through which eligible addresses that are qualified for the UNI 400 airdrop is not transparent. This could be corrected by the team taking responsibility and listing all the addresses so that users can actually crosscheck with the blockchain. This will also help a novice to easily search for their address through the database of the addresses eligible.