Hi everyone,

This proposal is for the continued on chain funding of the testnet team; myself, Alex, and all other capable mainnet validators.

Thanks to a favourable exchange rate and 5% buffer, we ran for an extra month, as we've done most quarters in the past.

The charter and budget is unchanged for the coming quarter.

Exciting times and challenges lie ahead with all the amazing partnerships, and we're here for all of it.

Many thanks as always for your support.
