I'm seeking clarification on the list of countries that are prohibited for validator operators under the eligibility criteria. The documentation states that validators cannot be based in the US or "any country subject to economic sanctions" or "other prohibited jurisdictions." Could you please provide an updated or current list of these specific countries?

I want to ensure compliance for validators operating under the Celestia Foundation's program. Any additional information on prohibited jurisdictions or compliance requirements would be greatly appreciated.