Build from source

Prerequisites

- Java JDK
- caution
- EthSigner requires Java 11 or later releases.
- Git
- orGitHub Desktop

Installation on Linux / Unix / macOS

Clone the EthSigner repository

Clone theConsenSys/ethsigner repository:

git clone https://github.com/ConsenSys/ethsigner.git

Build EthSigner

After cloning, go to theethsigner directory.

Build EthSigner with the Gradle wrappergradlew :

./gradlew build Go to the distribution directory:

cd build/distributions/ Expand the distribution archive:

tar -xzf ethsigner- < version

    .tar.gz Move to the expanded folder and display the EthSigner help to confirm installation.

cd ethsigner- < version

    / bin/ethsigner --help

Installation on Windows

Install EthSigner

Clone theConsenSys/ethsigner repository:

git clone https://github.com/ConsenSys/ethsigner.git

Build EthSigner

Go to theethsigner directory:

cd ethsigner Build EthSigner with the Gradle wrappergradlew :

.\gradlew build note To rungradlew , you must have theJAVA_HOME system variable set to the Java installation directory. For example:JAVA_HOME = C:\Program Files\Java\jdk1.8.0_181 . Go to the distribution directory:

cd build\distributions Expand the distribution archive:

tar -xzf ethsigner-.tar.gz Go to the expanded folder and display the EthSigner help to confirm installation.

cd ethsigner- bin\ethsigner --help Edit this page Last updatedonMar 30, 2023 byEric LinPrevious Run from Docker image Next Use a single signing key