Hello dYdX Community,

The dYdX Ops subDAO wants to inform you that the dYdX Chain Protocol v5.0.0 Upgrade proposal is live!

[[DRC] dYdX Chain Protocol v5.0.0 Software Upgrade](#)

TL;DR: (summary)

We would like to put up for consideration a software upgrade proposal to dYdX Chain Protocol v5.0.0

(release date TBA). This upgrade introduces new features including Isolated Markets, Batch Orders, and Liquidity Vaults, Risk and Safety Improvements, performance enhancements, and the Slinky price oracle provided by Skip.

- Proposal link: Mintscan
- Proposed Block Height: 17560000

Based on the current block time, the upgrade is expected to occur on June 6th between 5:30 PM to 6:30 PM UTC.

We encourage every dYdX community member to participate actively in the voting process. Your support is invaluable as we continue to innovate and enhance the dYdX Chain.

Thank you for your continued support and active participation.
