whoa, unbundling inclusion from ordering is a cool idea!

How would you determine the bond that a sequencer is required to risk in the MEVA contract for a given future time window? It seems like it needs to be based on some prediction of MEV in the long-run?